SITUATION

Located on the rural fringe to the south west of Glenrothes, Inchdairnie East Lodge is perfectly located in a rural setting with excellent road and rail connections to all the major towns in central Scotland (only half an hour from Edinburgh). There are lovely views across farmland to the south and west. A high panel fence between the property and Kinglassie Road offers a protective barrier from the road. Whilst the area offers excellent everyday facilities such as shops, pubs, hotels and an outstanding sports center with swimming pool. Glenrothes Golf Course and Balbirnie Park Golf Course are both located close by. Educational facilities in the area include Kinglassie Primary School with numerous Primary and High Schools available within Glenrothes. The farmland immediately south of the property offers ideal hacking facilities and paths for riding and walking. The Fife riding club is in Glenrothes whilst the Bowhouse Scottish Equestrian Centre with its indoor and outdoor arenas and hacking is located only 1 mile away in Kinglassie.
